

Quicken® Personal Finance Software 2007 Fact Sheet

Quicken software The perfect companion to online banking

New and improved features in Quicken 2007 provide a better user experience when managing finances using software and the Web.

More than 125 customer-recommended product improvements - including a new home page - make Quicken easier to set up, keep up to date, attach check images and statements and manage your cash flow.

What's New

Better integration with online banking. Quicken 2007 interacts even better with your financial institution to download account balances, transactions, check images and statements. Improvements to account setup and download provide a comprehensive tool that enables you get up and running in minutes and stay up to date with minimal effort.

See your complete financial picture in one place. Quicken 2007 connects with more than 4,400 banks, credit cards, brokerages and 401(k) providers in a single click. Enter just one PIN and password to download all of your accounts via Quicken's One-Step Update.

New home page reduces clutter and makes it easier to see where your money is going. See money coming in, what's going out, and what's left to spend or save. Quicken 2007 enables you to easily monitor your monthly cash flow and answer key financial questions right on the home page without having to navigate several clicks away.

Improved tools help control spending and pay bills on time. Improved calendar view allows you to see your paychecks, bills and expenses by day and by month. It's even easier to schedule bills, get reminders and avoid late fees.

Your finances all in one place and paperless. Attach bank statements, checks, receipts and warranties electronically. Quicken 2007 seamlessly integrates with your scanner and has more storage capacity to save key documents right with the transaction. Rest easy, knowing that your check images are saved in Quicken for as long as you need them (up to seven years for tax purposes) - long after your bank removes them.

More than 125 customer-suggested improvements on the features you use most. We've listened to customers and made improvements to the most used features. Improved printing, auto categorization, instant insights and more!
